Hello Mr. Tim McGee, Chief Executive Officer of the LSBC,

1. I want to know Mr. McGee from you, as to what you intend to do about the slanderous and libelous letter of Mr. D. Ross McGowan, of which I attach a copy, who makes serious false allegations against me.
2. The most serious allegations that has potential ramification is found at page 1 para. 2, where Mr. McGowan states for the readers of his letter that, "With respect to Mr. Gaffney, we raise caution that his status could escalate to violent behaviour..." And Mr. McGowan states at page 3 of para. 3, that "Mr. Gaffney should be considered unstable and potentially dangerous".
3. Mr. McGowan is implying that I am a threat to anyone who comes into contact with me, which is untrue. Thus it is reasonable to say that anyone coming into contact with Mr. McGowan's letter of Oct. 31, 08, whether inadvertently or advertently, would naturally want to get me arrested, since his statement, being a member of the bar, and being a partner with Borden Ladner Gervais, carries a lot of weight.
4. In fact, due to Mr. McGowan's reckless allegations to Mr. Stephen Alsace of CIBC legal department, CIBC did send me a letter in November and December 2008, threatening me with trespass should I enter any CIBC branch to pay my mortgage and my CIBC personal loan. Imagine the outrageous demands made on me by CIBC due to Mr. McGowan's letter, in order for I to default both on my mortgage and my CIBC personal loan? It begs the question what CIBC was prepared to do, had I gone in their financial institution?
5. Subsequently Mr. McGowan's letter affects me directly. Further due to the concern with my safety and security, I cannot let Mr. McGowan's allegations stand as being true, therefore I respectfully ask you Mr. McGee to please let me know what you intend to do with Mr. McGowan and his letter.
6. I would ask you to please reply to my email no later than Friday, February 20, 2009.

Yours Truly,
Harold Gaffney

Ms. Brownstone,

I am responding to your email of Tuesday, February 17, 2009, of which I attach a copy below.

Prior at providing the LSBC with particulars of my own, I want to know, since I am part the complaint, whether Ruth Long will be responding to Mr. Jasich's letter of January 30, 2009, in relation to providing him with the requested particulars which will assist him in his defence.

I also expect to be advised as to whether the LSBC intends to keep the slanderers and reported fraudsters out of the complaint against Mr. Jasich, namely, Mr. D. Ross McGowan, Mr. R. Keith Oliver, and Mr. Mark V. Lewis.

I await your immediate response.

Harold Gaffney

Mr. Gaffney,

Mr. McGee has referred your email dated February 17, 2009 to me, as the manager of the Professional Conduct Department, for response.

Please be advised that the Law Society's complaints process is a confidential one, and therefore we are not free to discuss it with you. However, if you have any information that you believe might be relevant to any investigation, please feel free to forward it to me.

It concerns me Mr. McGee that I have not received an acknowledgment from you regarding my email below which was delivered to you on February 3, 2009. Given your failure to communicate, leads me to believe that you have been apprised of Mr. D. Ross McGowan's defamatory letter, of which I attach a copy.

if you Mr. McGee believe what Mr. McGowan says in his letter of me and of my pro bono lawyer than one has to conclude that you must believe what Mr. McGowan says at page 3, para. 3, about lawyer Graeme Keirstead, the Manager of Custodianships and Special Fund at the LSBC, as being "permanently brain injured". The LSBC would be remiss in having Mr. Keirstead holding a responsible position such as looking after the trust funds of lawyer, if Mr. Keirstead was in fact "permanently brain injured", as asserted in Mr. McGowan letter to CIBC and possibly to others as well.

Please note that I believe and verily believe that Mr. McGowan is the lawyer responsible for the alterations of postal money orders, payable to CIBC Mortgage Corporations. Due to Mr. McGowan's legal advise to CIBC, CIBC saw fit to alter postal money orders, without my authorization and knowledge, payable to CIBC Mortgage Corporation Inc. and used the money orders for a purpose other then what it was intended for. This of course, as you know is a criminal offence to alter the face of a postal money order.

If I do not hear from you on this matter, I will reasonably conclude that Mr. McGowan's letter did influence you and in fact the letter has had the effect that Mr. McGowan intended the letter to have on its readers.

It begs the question Mr. McGee as to how much are you prepared to cover up for lawyers involved in fraud, including Mr. R. Keith Oliver and Mr. McGowan who appears to be counsel for Mr. Oliver

Yours Truly,
 Harold Gaffney

Attention Mr. Tim McGee/ Executive Director of Law Society of British Columbia
 Copy: Ms. Ruth Long

Re: LSBC File No. 20081027 --G. Stephen Alsace, Asst. Counsel, CIBC legal Dept.

While I respect the right of the law society to investigate its members, and discipline them in whatever way it sees fit, I object most strongly to being slandered by third party allegations that the party in this case, is using to defraud me of my property, while at the same time keeping the slanderers and reported fraudsters out of this complaint against Mr. Jasich, Mr. Ross McGowan, Mr. R. Keith Oliver, and Mr. Mark V. Lewis.

I believe I have a cause for action against the law society and you personally Mr. Mcgee, if you should fail to direct your subordinate, Ms. Ruth Long, in the matter of this complaint, to respond forthwith to the matter Mr. Jasich has put before her in his letter of 30 Jan 09. I speak specifically in response to the letter of Mr. Ross McGowan dated 31 Oct 08.

It is essential that Mr. Keith Oliver, who Mr. McGowan is relying on and also his partner Mr. Mark V. Lewis of Borden Ladner Gervais also known as Ladner Downs, this being the 10th anniversary of the Wilbert Owen Kennedy fraud, and in my communication with the complainant Mr. George Alsace, I reminded of him of the aforementioned case of the 10th anniversary of the fraudulent property transfer of Mr. Wilbert Owen Kennedy, a dual citizen of both Canada and the United States.

I would reasonably expect your attention in the matter without any delays.

Signed,

Harold Gaffney (treat as signed by Harold Gaffney)
