Anthony J. Jasich, LL.B.
Barrister and Solicitor
#403 – 567 Lonsdale Avenue
North Vancouver, BC V7M 2G6

Dear Mr. Jasich:

Re: Citation issued September 21, 2009
Hearing Date: March 2 and 3, 2010

I enclose a draft Agreed Statement of Facts, together with attachments. In matters where the underlying facts are not in dispute, the Law Society's practice is to seek agreement on facts in order to minimize, to the extent possible, the length and the cost of the hearing. Please note that, if an adverse determination against you is made at a disciplinary hearing, the Law Society will seek costs of the hearing, payable by you, pursuant to section 46 of the Legal Profession Act and section 5-9 of the Law Society Rules.

Accordingly, may I please hear from you as to the following:

1. Are you prepared to sign the draft Agreed Statement of Facts in the form enclosed?
2. If the answer to question 1, above, is "no", are you prepared to sign any Agreed Statement of Facts, and if so, what revisions do you require?
3. If you are not prepared to admit or agree to any facts, are you nonetheless prepared to admit the authenticity and admissibility (for purposes of the hearing) of all documents provided to you as disclosure?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours truly,

Eric Wredenhagen
Counsel
