Dear Mr. Wood,

I enclose a document, that was sent to my fax number noted above, addressed to the attention of Mr. Jasich, my pro bono legal counsel, which I presume the document is also for my benefit.

We see no written decision nor do we see any signatures by the Discipline Committee of the Law Society nor do we see a properly executed document, other than what you claim, that the Discipline Committee of the Law Society accepted Mr. Jasich's undertaking.

It would certainly give the appearance that the undertaking was made privately, between yourself Mr. Wood and Mr. Jasich, prior to act two (2) scene nine (9) hearing of March 2, 2010. (I am reminded of the CIBC fraudulent mortgage discharge that Mr. Jasich claimed in the last three years, regarding my property).

Further and alternatively, it is to be noted that Mr. Jasich, entered into a covenant of good faith and fair dealing when he offered to take on my case and acted as legal counsel on a pro bono basis since 2006.

It is now for the Law Society of B.C. to abide by the covenant and the law of pro bono, pursuant to the Professional Rules that govern lawyers in British Columbia, and take the necessary steps to ensure that the alleged agreement is properly executed, otherwise the Law Society is vicariously liable for Mr. Jasich, for even accepting such contract, knowing the law on contracts.

I await to hear from you,

In the meantime, please govern yourselves accordingly,

~~Signed~~

Harold Gaffney
